HEAVY GERMAN LOSSES IN EAST SAAR

PARIS, Oct. 18 (Reuter)-Critics are further examining the German attack in East Saar in which it is estimated 150,000 men are engaged and emphasise that nowhere were they able to advance beyond the line designated by General Gamelin.

Tanks were unusable because of the terrain which was heavily mined and the Germans encountered such withering fire that they could not even get within hand grenade range of the French German losses are believed to be over 60,000 and from Luxembourg comes reports that great numbers of wounded are evacuating to Treves and Aix-la-Chapelle.

The Germans are now trying to dig in in ground accurately p'otted for French artillery. The French are still on German soil miles ahead of the Maginot Line.

FRENCH LOSSES INSIGNIFICANT

PARIS, Oct. 18 (Reuter)—It is authoritatively stated that French losses on Monday's attacks were insignificant. French advance posts stayed until they saw that the Germans have actually begun their advance and then fired signals for a barrage of artillery don, Count Bastianini, presented and machine-gun fire. They then his credentials to the King this fell back on defensive positions.

Reports that tanks and men in armour are being used by the Germans are unfounded as comparatively few infantry were employed and it is clear that the Germans have not yet launched a big-scale attack.

The French survivors of the Bretagne, which was sunk by a German U-boat, spent five hours in a lifeboat before being rescued by a British warship. The latter had on board the German captain and crew of a submarine which had been destroyed by the British Navy after sinking a merchani ship.—(Reuter).

The Hon. Francis B. Sayre, the new United States High Commissioner to the Philippine Islands, had the local press representatives stymied yesterday when he arrived in the Colony from San Francisco. He just would not talk!

In a gracious and likeable manner the High Commissioner received questions relative to international affairs and Philippine activities, but not an inkling of opinion. was expressed in his replies.

Mr. Sayre was most emphatic in his statement that "America desired peace, and it is a peace loving nation," but as regards the future attitude of the country, it could not be defined or expressed at this time.

What Mr. Sayre thought of the Neutrality Bill, the activities of the squadron of United States Naval bombing aircraft and the U.S.S. Langley now in Philippine waters, or Philippine relations or activities, were diplomatically concealed."

Becoming informal, Mr. Sayre expressed his pleasure at being in the Far East again and recalled his year in 1926 when he was Adviser to the Siamese Government. During the day yesterday Mr.

and Mrs. Sayre renewed their acquaintance, with Hongkong by touring the Island. The U.S. Consul-General, Mr. A. E. Southard entertained the High Commissioner and his party, including Lieut. OOL, siender, clear-eyed, with a complexion like a wild rose-yet she's seldom missing when cocktail time rolls round. And she's seldom in bed before the small hours of the morning.

Then how can she keep that willowy figure and that soft peach bloom of a skin? Tiptoe nearer, and peep over her shoulder or you'll find the answer in her glass. Her drinks are "Gimlets," made with Rose's Lime Juice, just as they were in the good old Hong-Kong days.

And here's another secret, but keep it under your hat. She happens to know that Rose's has a quiet way of killing off a hangover before it comes to life. No morning-after headaches after Rose's. It neutralizes the aftermath of alcohol.

GERMANY'S DILEMMA

THE BEST MILITARY OPINION seems now to 774 hold that the commencement of major operations on the Western Front is not far off. Poland has been reduced. Hitler's "peace offensive" has met with failure. On the Maginot and Siegfried lines, both sides are prepared.

IN 1914 the Germans their offensive launched against France immediately after the declaration of war. The initial impetus brought. them to the gates of Paris. At the same time, they succeeded in holding a Russian attack against East Prussia for: and, although there is no intwo fronts, were enabled, by Czarist mismanagement and inefficiency, to win the annihilating victory of Tannen-

TO-DAY, although the campaign in the East has concluded, the Reich is much less favourably placed. At the beginning of September, Germany was mobilised. France, on the other hand, had just begun her preparahave held the Poles, to be disposed of at the leisure of the German High Command, while the main forces on land and sea were thrown against the most important frontthe Western. But Hitler did not adopt this course. He chose, rather, to base his military plan on the erroneous political calculation that the tions:-Allies would consider peace after Poland was gone, and thus lost his initial advan-

IN THE MEANTIME, the the 23rd day of Oct., 1939, at 3 Soviet Union had occupied the territories of Polish White Russia and Ukraine and made itself master of the Baltic coast. How shocking all this was to the German General Staff can be seen arrests that took place in its in Corps Orders. ranks, and from the bitter attacks it launched on Herr Ribbentrop for "misleading the Fuehrer." NOW GERMANY faces a fully mobilised French Army on British and French cities paralysing element of surprise. Stalemate would carry only by a depletion of reserves and deterioration of morale behind the lines. An attack with all the country's resources would be a desperate gamble with practically no chance of early success. IT WOULD BE FOOLISH to underestimate the industrial and military potential of a great and highly organized state like Germany. # CHANGE IN OPERATIONS SIGNIFICANT ON WESTERN FRONT IS INDICATED BY GERMAN ATTACKS

Nazi Troops Checked At All Points

PARIS, Oct. 18 (Reuter)—The last two French communiques reporting successive German attacks east of Saar reveal a significant change in the operations on the Western Front.

After the defeat of the Polish armies, the French command decided to reconstitute the furthest positions reached on German territory on defensive lines. This involved the creation of lightly held observation posts, with a wide dispersal of men.

New York, October 17. October 16 October 17 SINGAPORE RUBBER S P O T ..... 34-3/4 JAN.-MARCH ...... 33-1/4 APRIL-JUNE ..... 32-3/4 The market was quiet,

COTTON: The general demand advanced prices easily and the market was strong technically. Hedging was small on prospects that a Government cotton would become mandatory at 8.30 cents. Stocks held abroad are not large and are easily to be worked off. Any buying replenishment will result in much higher prices. We would favour accumulation of May option, RUBBER: The market was technically strong. Manufacturers" were the largest buyers. Statistical outlook is favourable.

WHEAT: News that Germany air raid on Capital of Scotland was promptly reflected in higher wheat prices, accompanied by extensive short covering. Large supplies have apparently been discounted and the prospect of prolonged hostilities would be certain to intensify the demand and raise prices appreciably. The continuance of drought in South-west is also a helpful factor.

HIDES: The strength of the market was timed with the firmness of stocks. Packers are reported to sell at advances of prices. Commission Houses were the largest buyers.

NEW YORK STOCKS: Previous close, 150.84; To-day's close, 154.56; Change, up 3.72.
